ABOUT THE COVER

Property accountability is Uncle Sam's latest act, and he's really getting his act together with the help of the new "proper count" system. It provides better control over items in the Army inventory as explained in the article beginning on page 2. The cover painting is by Charles F. Marie.

Army Logistician is devoted to the publication of timely, authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics for the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. Our purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to encourage and stimulate innovative thought in areas of logistics by providing a forum for those ideas. The views expressed in the articles are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Department of Defense or the Department of the Army.

Army Logistician is an official Army periodical published bimonthly and sponsored by the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations, Logistics, and Financial Management), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commander, Army Materiel Development and Readiness Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. Material may be reprinted if credit is given to Army Logistician and the author, unless otherwise noted.

Use of the third person pronoun "he" and any of its forms, as used in this periodical, is intended to include both masculine and feminine genders. Any exceptions will be indicated in the text.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logistician, Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing of this publication was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, on 1 October 1977 in accordance with AR 310-1.

Active Army units receive distribution under the pinpoint system outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to Cdr, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220. Army National Guard and Army Reserve units must submit requirements through State adjutants general or Army Reserve channels.

Subscriptions are available through the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Annual rates are $7.65 for mailing to a domestic or APO address and $9.60 for mailing to a foreign address. Single copies are $1.35. Checks should be payable to the Superintendent of Documents.
