Army Logician's mission is to provide timely, authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics to the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. Its purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to assist in achieving the Army's information goals.

Army Logician is an official Army periodical published bimonthly and sponsored by the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations and Logistics), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commander, Army Materiel Development and Readiness Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. Material may be reprinted if credit is given to Army Logician and the author. Opinions expressed by contributors do not necessarily reflect the official views of the Department of the Army.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logician, Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing Army Logician was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, on 31 October 1975.

Active Army units receive distribution under the pinpoint system outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to CO, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220. Army National Guard and Army Reserve units must submit requirements through state adjutants general or Army Reserve channels.

Subscriptions are available through the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Annual rates are $7.65 for mailing to a domestic or APO address and $9.60 for mailing to a foreign address. Single copies are $1.35. Checks should be payable to the Superintendent of Documents.

A word about subscriptions —

Do you want to continue to receive Army Logistician? Your unit may not get our next issue, unless your publications officer has verified your unit's subscription within the past few months.

To verify your unit's subscription, your publications officer must complete a new DA Form 12-5, dated 1 February 1976, and submit it to the USA AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21220.

The basis for distribution of Army Logistician is one copy per two officers or warrant officers and one copy per five enlisted personnel or Department of the Army civilians directly involved in supply, maintenance, transportation, or logistics service activities of the Army.

Members of the Noncommissioned Officer Logistics Program are entitled to personal subscriptions. If you are a program member and are not receiving a personal copy of Army Logistician, send a copy of the order appointing you as a program member, along with your current military mailing address, to Army Logistician, ATTN: Circulation Department, ALMC, Fort Lee, Virginia 23801. We will see that your name is added to the program's mailing list.

If you do not qualify for "free" distribution, you may subscribe through the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Annual rates are $7.65 for mailing to a domestic or APO address and $9.60 for mailing to a foreign address. Checks should be payable to the Superintendent of Documents.
